Phil Christiana- FBI Special Agent

Career Biography

I am a CPA (Accountant) by education from Rutgers University in New Jersey. I have been a Special Agent with the FBI for 20 years. I was stationed in the Boston Field Office as a new agent in 1992. I spent five years as an operator with the FBI Hostage Rescue Team at Quantico, Virginia(1996-2001). I am currently assigned to the New Hampshire Joint Terrorism Task Force at the Bedford (NH) Resident Agency as a Special Agent Bomb Technician. I am also responsible for security related issues at Manchester Boston Regional Airport and Seabrook Nuclear Power Plant. I have also served as the primary Firearms and Tactical Instructor for the Boston Field Office.
